

PRIVATE EQUITY, VENTURE CAPITAL, AND INFRASTRUCTURE FUNDS IN EMERGING MARKETS

Practical Solutions for Building an Effective Private Equity Sector and Policy Environment

September 19-23, 2016 Washington, D.C.

TUITION: $1995 USD

DURATION: 5 Business Days

Highly-suitable for regulatory, policy and pension oversight officials.

COURSE OUTLINE

This course highlights the foundational issues relating to the development and regulation of private capital funds in developing economies, including private equity, venture capital, infrastructure, private credit (debt) and impact investing funds. Participants will discuss the major building blocks supporting an effective investment sector and the policy environment needed to assist its development. The seminar will cover issues related to the growing interaction of private capital in emerging markets with institutional investors in developed markets and its nexus with economic development.

Overview of Private Equity, Venture Capital, Infrastructure and Private Credit (Debt)

- Global comparative data of Private Equity markets in emerging economies
- Private Equity as asset class

Structures & Roles of Participants in Private Capital Industry

- Governments and regulators
- Multilateral and bilateral development institutions Investment Funds
- Managers
- Investors
- Professionals auditors, lawyers
- Financial participants
- Portfolio companies

Administration of Private Capital Vehicles

- Governance
- Reporting
- Disclosure

Legal, Regulatory & Institutional Framework

- Securities and tax laws
- Competition laws
- Offshore financial centers
- EMPEA Guidelines

COURSE ADVISORS:

Don Scott de Amicis &
Robert van Zwieten

THE INTERNATIONAL LAW INSTITUTE was founded in 1955 as part of Georgetown University. Since 1983, ILI has been an independent, non-political, non-profit training institution. ILI offers training to assist government officials, practitioners, and the private sector in finding solutions to the legal and economic challenges faced by developing nations and emerging economies.

ILI participants are exposed to best practices in good governance, management, and transparency standards that will give them the tools to improve the performance of government agencies, promote public accountability in government, and achieve sustainable economic growth.

More than 30,000 participants from over 185 countries have been trained by ILI and its global affiliates.

EMPEA is the global industry association for private capital in emerging markets. EMPEA is an independent non-profit organization with over 300 member firms, comprising institutional investors, fund managers, and industry advisors, who together manage more than US$1 trillion in assets and have offices in over 100 countries across the globe.

EMPEA members share the belief that private capital is a highly-suited investment strategy in emerging markets, delivering long-term investment returns and promoting sustainable growth of companies and economies.

EMPEA supports its members through global authoritative intelligence, conferences, networking, education, and advocacy.

To find out more, visit www.EMPEA.org.

International Law Institute

Fostering Prosperity Through the Rule of Law

1055 Thomas Jefferson St. NW, Suite M-100

Washington, D.C. 20007

P: 1.202.247.6006 • F: 1.202.247.6010 • www.ili.org

